

'Sound moves' will be of interest to teachers, therapists and other professionals working with children who have severe or profound and multiple disabilities, as well as parents and carers. It shows a wide range of musical activities that can be undertaken by specialists and non-specialists alike.

The video is designed to complement 'Music moves' and All join in! published by RNIB.

Soundabout is dedicated to helping staff in special schools make music with their pupils. For further information, phone 01865-876202, or write to Soundabout, 106 Kelham Hall Drive, Wheatley, Oxford OX33 1YB.

RNIB Music Education Advisory Service offers information, advice, training and publications. The AMBER Trust supports people who are visually impaired, have learning disabilities and special musical abilities or needs. For further information phone 0181-968 8600, or write to RNIB or The AMBER Trust, Garrow House, 190 Kensal Road, London W10 5BT.

Director:
Howard Rees

For Soundabout:
Ann Brown

Narrated by:
Sue Lawley

For RNIB:
Adam Ockelford

Executive Producer:
Sandy Andrews
Andrews Marshall
Communications
0171-622 9966

Running time: 45 mins

© Royal National Institute for the Blind 1998

Registered Charity No. 226227 ISBN 1 85878 165 5

Sound moves

Royal National Institute for the Blind

Soundabout

Sound moves

Making music with children who have severe or profound and multiple learning disabilities

RNIB
challenging blindness